

To know the way before us
is sometimes not the best for if we knew where roads may lead
we may not stop to rest.

So if your way seems weary perhaps just stop a while to take a prayerful little breath,
and trust in God. And smile.

--Jerral Sapienza

Happy
New Year, Friend.

A special Chaplain Poem for Wed Jan 7, 2004
Blessings Be!

© 2004 LLX Press, Inc.